

CHAPTER 6.00 - PERSONNEL

6.96

PRIVATE INSTRUCTION AND TUTORING

POLICY:

With the exception of those in therapy services, no member of the administrative or instructional staff shall receive compensation for services rendered to a pupil with whom he is directly associated professionally nor shall he promote within the school any activity or project from which he is likely to receive compensation or remuneration other than his salary as an employee of the School Board. Any member of the instructional staff who tutors a pupil enrolled in the public schools of the district shall have prior approval of the principal of the school in which the pupil is enrolled. All private tutoring for compensation or remuneration will be done after the teacher's regular school day.
